Advent Reflection We are here not just to muddle through life; no, we are created by God in order to come one day to share in God's own perfection of love and righteousness... It is only by having that uncompromising goal before us that we are likely to be effective in loving and serving our fellow human beings in the here and now. Eternity portrays the uncompromising perfection of the goal for each one of us: the ideal that is nothing less than God-likeness.
Archbishop Michael Ramsey

Advent Confessions Immediately after all the Sunday Masses today and next week 22nd December there will be the opportunity for making your confession before Christmas.
