PAUL JOHNSTON RIP

Paul's funeral service will take place on Thursday 15 January at 11 am here at St Catherine's. At Paul's request, we have been given permission by the Archdiocese to offer a Tridentine Latin Mass at his funeral. Fr David Howell, who knew Paul, will be offering this Mass. Parishioners are welcome to attend. Please continue to pray for Paul and for Daphne, his widow.

ROBIN DOREY RIP

Robin's son has written to us. He says:
"Robin sadly passed away after a short battle with pneumonia on Christmas Eve. As many parishioners will know, Robin served St Catherine's for many years as a Eucharistic Minister and was also a prominent member of the social committee. Robin is survived by his beloved wife Margaret and their 3 children. The family, in line with Robin's wishes, has taken the tough decision not to tell Margaret, who resides in a care home with dementia & other disabilities, but would take great comfort if the St Catherine's community would keep them both in your prayers."

"Proclaim the truth as if you have a thousand voices. It is silence that kills the world."
From St Catherine's writings

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY THIS TUESDAY IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Is this still the season of joy and peace, my dear brothers and sisters? Or are there people among us and around us who are dampening our joy and crushing our peace? God has entered human history for the first time in the form of a vulnerable baby that needs the protection of his human parents as all babies do – the human condition. The Holy Family was threatened with annihilation. We also today encounter people who want to kill our faith and our love of Christ before it takes root deep within our very being. We too must protect our children's faith.

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY Unveiling, Manifestation, Revelation

WHY IS IT SO SPECIAL?

Epiphany is special because it marks the public manifestation or unveiling of God's great plan of salvation for the human race. It is the public revelation to the whole world that God has humbled himself to share in our humanity and that his mission is to save all humanity from sin and death. The Scripture readings contain all the clues to our destiny and to Christ's mission. The arrival of the Wise Men or Magi from distant and non-Jewish lands signified that Christ came to save all humanity, not just the Jewish people, the chosen people of Abraham. As St Paul tells us, it is revealed that the gentiles were part of God's plan from the beginning of Christ's mission on earth. The Wise Men travelled a long way, through many dangers and following a star. Something special happened 2,000 years ago. Epiphany signifies that the light of Christ has entered the world and that the Saviour of the world will bring forgiveness of all our sins. This awesome God, with no beginning and no end, has come to us all to embrace us, because he has never abandoned us. He has revealed himself to us. The Messiah is not simply the King of Israel but the King of all and everyone will pay homage to him like the Wise Men. Christ is the light of all the nations but sometimes even when the truth is staring us in the face, when all the signs are clear about the right course of action to take, we allow ourselves to become spiritually blind. Our pride makes us resist God's grace. Let us open our hearts.

HAPPY NEW YEAR AND A VERY BIG THANK YOU!

I thank you for your generosity in your Christmas offerings to me. You are so kind. As you may know, Catholic priests do not receive a salary from the Diocese. They rely on the Christmas and Easter offerings and on Mass stipends to buy essential items of clothing, run a car and generally buy what is necessary to serve you as best they can and to be there when you need them. The times you really need a priest is not when you are dead but when you are alive - and able to proclaim the truth and love of Christ; when you are ill and showing patience; and when you are dying and witnessing your faith to those around you. The priest is there for you to help you in your darkest hours – in times of pain and despair - and to rejoice with you for the many gifts God has given each one of you, and especially in the gift to all of us of our Lord Jesus. The priest is there to give you life in abundance in the form of the Holy Eucharist, to bring Christ's forgiveness of your sins, to prepare you to receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit at Baptism and Confirmation and to prepare you for, and sustain you in, the sacrament of marriage. The priest is there to pray for you to the Father. Working to improve the fabric of the church estate is a secondary activity and usually one for which he is not trained, though he is responsible for the careful stewardship of the parish. I am so grateful to you. Many of you have come forward over the last couple of years to take much of the mental and physical burden off me in looking after the parish – the replacement of guttering for the church; the establishment of a cinema in our hall; the building of a Memorial Garden; the repair and replacement of lights across the estate; the wonderful fundraising you have led with cake and plant sales, Summer BBQ and Christmas Fayre; the fabulous decorations of the church and Hall for our 50th anniversary; the Photo Shoots; the preparations for replacing the church windows which will now be the focus of church refurbishment. I would like to call more and more on your help in 2026 so that I may serve you better.
