PRAYER OF ST CATHERINE OF SIENA

Holy Spirit,
come into my heart;
draw it to Thee by Thy power, O my God,
and grant me charity
with filial fear.
Preserve me,
O beautiful Love, from every evil thought;
warm me, inflame me
with Thy dear love,
and every pain
will seem light to me.
My Father, my sweet
Lord, help me
in all my actions.
Jesus, love, Jesus, love.
Amen

Flexibility on price for larger families.

FINAL CHRISTMAS CRIB OFFERING The Good Counsel Network – Help Women

This is your last opportunity to donate to the Good Counsel Network. The Network has done excellent work in supporting women who might otherwise have been driven to abort their babies. The Network website says:

- Do you have a parishioner who is pregnant and worried or someone who is actively considering or planning to abort?
- Do you need advice for someone who has had an abortion and who is suffering? Visit our website www.goodcounselnet.co.uk or call us: 020 7723 1740 or e-mail us at info@goodcounselnetwork.com

BE MY VALENTINE! NATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK

This annual celebration runs from February 7-14 and offers the opportunity to support and promote marriage and family life. Visit the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England & Wales website for details of various initiatives and events marking Marriage Week:

BEATITUDE SUNDAY: THE TEN COMMANDMENTS INJECTED WITH PURE LOVE AND GRACE

More than any other passage in the Bible the Beatitudes give us the most profound, intense, sustained and challenging experience of a heavenly existence bathed in pure love and truth – an existence we are challenged to start experiencing here on earth to prepare for eternal union with God.

As Christ speaks, layer upon layer of love, humility, self-sacrifice, and generosity unfolds until we are face to face with the truth about ourselves. Tears come to our eyes as we experience peace at last. We merge ourselves with our beloved Lord Jesus Christ. We become one with Him, the Father and the Holy Spirit. It is the oneness we experience when we receive the Holy Eucharist with a pure heart. We see God in the silence of our hearts and minds, the very essence of Christ, true God, true man, truly mortal and truly risen. Think of the Beatitudes and the Kingdom of God as you receive Holy Communion.

All week the Church has fed us with Bible passages about establishing the Kingdom of God in ourselves and among ourselves on this earth. And now in Mathew's Beatitudes Christ presents us with the Christian life in the Kingdom of God to which we are called. We encounter the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount frequently during the year, because they are the Christian life. But this Sunday is known unofficially as "Beatitude Sunday" because this is the Sunday in which we read the Beatitudes in their entirety.

This kingdom is unlike any other kingdom on earth. To enter this kingdom, we must acknowledge our own sinfulness so that we can be filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit and be able with humility to enter eternal life with God. We must recognise our need to be with God into eternity. Unlike Adam and Eve in Genesis, we must consider ourselves infinitely less than God and not be fooled by the devil that we have it in us to be greater than God, greater than our creator. That is the sin of Adam and Eve and of many in our generation, convinced by the devil that "they can be anything they want to be" rather than to strive to be simply what God wants us to be. The Beatitudes show us how to live the Ten Commandments as Children of God, with humility, love, peace and truth in hearts that are pure. The Beatitudes inject the Commandments and the Old Testament law with pure love - Christ's unselfish love and peace. This is how the Christian behaves and this is how the Christian then goes on and fulfils the rest of the Sermon on the Mount, e.g. loving one's enemy, accepting that the Christian marriage bond cannot be broken, judging oneself thoroughly before judging others and then only with love and mercy, and so on in order to know and do the will of God and enter the Kingdom.

To know and do the will of God: observe the Commandments; live Christ's Beatitudes; honour Christ's Sacraments and follow the teachings of the Catholic Church founded by Christ on the Apostles and guided by the Holy Spirit all the way to us today.
